Reading Matter on every page. ATTEMPTED Ilighway Robbers .- About eight clock, Weduesday night, the teamster of Mr. Isaac Miller, who resides a short distance in the country, was waylaid, torn from his horse, and would have been robbed and killed but for the great outcry he made and the appearance of others ou the road. He was on his return home from the city with a four horse team, an empty wood wagon, and when about at the intersection of the Cane Ruu plauk road with the Salt river turnpike, he was suddenly heset hy five negroes, or while men disguised. They cut the lead horse loose, and threw the teamster under the wagor wheels, but were scared away by the approach of some one on the road, without robbing him. He had some twenty dollars on his person, and he thinks he was thrown under the wheel in order to have the horses draw the wagon over him, and lead to the impression that he had fullen off.

SAD ACCIDENT .- A very melancholy accident appened near New Washington, in Clark coun-, Ind., on yesterday, which terminated in the eath of Miss Emma, daughter of Solomon Bower, Esq. She was passing an ox wagon loaded with a heavy saw log, and when near the wagon, her horse became frightened, and threw her under the wagon. One of the wheels passed over her neck, breaking it, and killing her instantly.

Miss Bower was an amiable young lady, and her sad fate has thrown a gloom over the whole

CUTTING AFFRAY .- Wednesday evening a man amed Warner Berry went into the coffee house Charles Werner, on Market street, New Al apy, where a dispute arose between the two Werner attempted to put Berry out of the house, when Berry pulled ont a knife and cut Werner in the right side above the hip. The sound is an ugly one, but not dangerous. Berry was held in $2,000 bail for his appearance before the mayor on Monday morning, in delault of which he was committed to iail.

George Harris, Esq., at present mail agent on the East Tounessee and Virginia railroad, has made arrangements to commence the publication of a Democratic paper at Knoxville. He is the renowned author of the "Sut Lovengood" papers, which have been universally read and admired, and wields the pen of a ready writer. He will nake a good editor, we have no doubl, and we hope he will continue his humorous publications

AN ACKNOWLEDGHANT .- The managers of the Louisville Orphaus' Home thankfully acknowledge the former kindness of their friends in the ountry, and beg leave to inform them that conributious of all kinds of produce would be very cceptable. The Home is almost destitute of winter vegetaoles, and must depend on the kinduess of their ountry friends or purchase.

Food for horses and cattle is also much uceded. We have a statute which inflicts a penalty pon all persons who disturb religious meetings; and those persons who so continually annoy their ellow worshippers with coughing, would certainly be held liable to its penalties by a jary; for it is perfectly notorious that a single dose of "John ull's Compound Pectoral of Wild Cherry," taken before going to church, would prevent all the anoyance to others, and give relief to the sulferer

CHOICE PITTSBURGH COAL .- Now that winter has et in in earnest, we advise those of our readers the are out of coal, to call on Bowser & Fultz for fresh supply of pure Pitishurgh. They are clever men, honest dealers, and sell at the very owest possible rates. Orders can be left at the freet, or on Market street just below Sixth, at the Monificent Liberality .- At the late meeting the Alabama Baptist State Convention, at sainesville, it was announced that Jeremiah II. rown, Esq., of Sumfer county, Ala., would suport as many as fifty-one theological students at Howard College, allowing to each $250. This would make $12,750 a year given by this liberal gentleman. Howard College is a Baptist Semi cary at Marion, of high standing.

THE NEW ALBANY FERRY .- In the New Albany Council Monday night, the committee ou ordinnces were instructed to report a ferry ordinance twenty, and ou Sundays from twenty-five min tes to thirty; also that they be allowed twenty five cents for ferrage after night; also to charge hc ferry company $300 for license.

ained Huless, residing at Newtown, Scott conn , lost three of its members by death, in les nan four days. On Thursday, a lady, (unmar ied.) aged 32. died: on Friday, a brother, aged 9, followed; and on Sunday, another brother aged 22, was buried. The discase was putrid carlet fever. Another member of the family was cry low with the same disease.

le daughter of Mr. John Nutter, of Scott county, ess than two years of age, met with a very pain al, and it is thought, a fatal accident, by over uruing a cup of hot water from a table, the con tents of which fell upon her face and neck, and scalded them in a dreadful manner. Her recovery is considered doubtful. She is an only child. The regular weekly lecture at the Mercan ile College, corner of Third and Market streets, will be delivered to-uight, commencing at 71/2 o'clock, by l'rof. W. W. Harney, upon "Promisso ry Notes and Bills of Exchange," subjects worthy the attention of every business man. Prof. Harney's lectures are always clear, profound, and eminently practical. In our issue of yesterday we failed to acnowledge the receipt of the President's message in advance of the mail, through the provident care of S. A. Jones, of Adams' Express. It is such a common thing, however, for the swiftfooted Jones to heat the mail, that we should he always acknowledging favors, if Adams & Co.'s

Express got all that we owe them through him. BROKE DOWN .- A cart, loaded with coal, broke lown on Jefferson street, near Jackson, yesterday morning. The accident was caused by the action of the frost on the axletree. Owners of vehicles should be careful how they drive over rough streels these cold, frosty mornings-especially should they avoid breaking the law by driving vchicles without springs as fast as we see them do every day. As is usual, during this season of the year, the banks of Beargrass creek, in the region of the pork-houses, are taken possession of by a Kentucky, on the south side of Market, between Brook and Floyd streets, had the capital prize of $10,000 in his office yesterday. WALKER OUT .- One Mr. James H. Allen, who therefor in the police court yesterday, called his attorney one side, and after a little conversation, Penalty the Court might have adjudged.

THEATER.—Mr. Booth's benefit takes place tonight, when he appears in his unrivulled character of Richard the Third. He is good in all that he plays, but in this part he is very great. Mrs.

Adah Iaaacs Menkeu will also appear.

Saturday says:

S. H. Whittsett, Esq., the editor and proprietor of the Memphis Daily Evening Ledger, for fighting with and hreaking a stick of wood over the head of Mr. Wolfe, a gunsmith, was yesterday arrested, arraigned hefore his Honor the Recorder, and fined the sum of $10 and costs, which he paid and took his departure.

A resolution passed both houses of the General Council last night, providing that those engaged in the tohacco trade shall give Col. Bayles one month's trial as inspector. If he proves to be they elected him, that they have since taken to get rid of him, they would have saved an important hranch of our trade from injury. Col. Bayles is not a devil, nor anything like a devil, but there is, nevertheless, an old proverh, that it is better to keep the devil out than to turn him out. If Col. Bayles was not fit for the office, he ought not to was not. Mr. Rohinson said he had attended such habitnally almost every year for twenty have been elected. The councilmen who elected nim are to hlame for all the harm done. No one can blame the Col. for not willingly sahmitting to the disgrace of being turned out of his office without judge or jury. We rather admire the bluck of his hunker tenacity.

We hope, however, that this difficulty will soon be settled. We have had enough children's play and monkey's sport about it. Our tobacco trade s not thus to be trifled with. We shall move very soon to turn all the councilmen, and Col. Bayles too, out of office, and we think the people will second our motion, and carry it hy a handsome majority.

A COMPLIMENT WORTHILY BESTOWED .- Yesterday Major Hawley, U. S. A., who for two years past has been connected with the recruiting station in this city, received orders for his departure forthwith. Immediately the members of the National Blues, one of our very best military orps, set about preparing a proper testimonial or their gallant commander. Last night a hanjust was held at the armory of the Blues, and a angnificent silver service was presented Major Hawley. Lieut. Symmes made the presentation peech, cloquently and feelingly. The Major reponded in a soldierly manner-hriefly, and with he true eloquence of heartfelt gratitude.

This transaction reflects credit upon all conerned. It was fit that the recipient of the honors of the evening should have a proper acknowledgement of his great worth. The National Blues did well to pay a parting testimonial to their faithful and efficient chief. In the ranks of the entire army, there breathes no braver spirit than that of Major Hawley.

The silver service was from the establishment of Hirschbuhl. We are requested to designate the services of Messrs. Bohanuon, Clarke, and Heganwho composed the committee on subsistence at

THE PORK MARKET-SLAUGHTER AND RECEIPTS. The market continues firm, with, however, no ransactions in hogs, but we hear of considerable ales of the product, including mess pork at $17 75 0 $18 25. The receipts are beginning to fall off ery fast, and two of the packing houses have losed their killing for the season, with the excepion of one lot of hogs to come in. The mamnoth establishment of Watkins, Hunt & Co. are oing full work, having slaughtered 52,000 bogs up to last evening. The slaughter yesterday, together with the total killed, and the hogs in pens, COUNTERFEIT MONEY.—The attention of Officer Mc-Evoywas early yesterday morning directed to three men, who appeared engaged in some swindling en-nerprise. Their movements were so shrewdly de-signed that little of a positive nature could be-learned of them. But at 2 o'clock P. M one of them entered the New Corinthian Ilat Store on Broadway, purchased a fine hat, presented a $50 bill, and received $44 75 as change. The bill was professedly on the Railroad and Banking Com-pany of Augusta, Georgia, and was remarkahly well executed. But a close scrutiny disclosed to well executed. But a close scrutny disclosed to Mr. F. A. Cline, who had taken it, that it was counterfeit. McEvoy was speedily upon the rogue's track, and succeeded in arresting him at the lower ferry as he was ahout stepping on hoar the ferry boat. He accompanied the "star" with very great reluctance. At the upper station house he gave his name as James Mavfield. When the attempt was made to search him he stronuously resisted, and on heing overpowered attempted to throw a bundle of hills into the stove. On his person were found forty-three of the fifty dollar counterfeits! They were all on the same bank as named above. This is the largest "hau!" of coun-

competent at the end of that time, he will retain his office, and, if otherwise, overboard he goes.—Of course Col. Bayles had to consent to the trial before it could be made, for unless the "Barkis is willin'," the test fixed up amounts to nothing.

If our city father's had taken half the trouble to inquire into the competency of Col. Bayles before they elected him, that they have since taken is consented, and profit of the Democratic party. But a most unexpected, unprovaked, and uttarly unfounded. Mr. Robiuson said he had not expected to speak unexpected, unprovaked, and utterly unfounded assault had been made upon him, and he would repol it. He knew that there had been much fluttering in the breeze about this meeting since the call was published. Why was this? Was there anything extraordinary or unusual in having Democratic meetings at the Capitol, on occasions

He was not the originator of the meeting, but he approved it. The gentleman who made this attack upon him, had made what amounted to a confession to the audience, that it was made he-cause his name was not on the programme. All the Democratic Senators and Representatives were invited. He, Mr. Robinson, had heard this subject canvassed as to how many of the names should go on the call. Many were put down till it was found that the entire list of the Democratic members of both llouses would have to be published or there would he danger of insulting some one The meeting had no connection with the Legisla-ture—none. So far from attempting to dictate to the Legislature, as had heen insinuated, he preto the Legislature, as nad heen insinuated, he pre-sumed that no gentleman aiding in getting it up, thought of such a thing. Why, what can the Democratic party in this Legislature do? They are the minority—they are powerless. He had not been in one of these halls since the Legislature had net. He wanted nothing, had asked nothing; nor attempted to courted anything in connection with the Legislature. He had casually met many of his old acquain

He had casually met many of his old acquaintauces and friends who were members, which had afforded him much pleasure, but nothing more. But the gentleman, (Mr. Wallace,) charged that he, (Mr. R.,) was the cause of the defeat of the Democratic party in this State in certain localities. He was glad the charge had been madeglad he had the opportunity to repel it. It was surprising, but true, that while he made this nafounded charge, the gentleman's own speech surprising, but true, that while he made this nationaled charge, the gentleman's own speech amounted to an open confession that the cause of the defeat was hecause Douglas men, with whom the gentleman assuredly sympathises, did not vote the tecket. He appealed to his audience if this was not true? Mr. Wallace had asserted the cause of the defeat was that one man was for Douglas, in Indiana, and another against him.—Judge Hughes, in his speech, had said things in condemnation of Mr. Douglas; Mr. M'Douald had said things in favor of his reselection. This sort of division of sentiment in Indiana, Mr. Wallace alleged, was what defeated us. You will bear me witness that this was his argument. Admitting his premises, who is responsible? Upon whom should good behavior. remises, who is responsible? Upon whom should he censure full? Musi it fall upon as humble an in-lividual as himselt? He, (Mr. R.) had voted or an Anti-Lecompton man for Congress; he had tor an Anti-Lecompton men on the State ticket; he had spoken and spent his time and his money alike for Lecompton and Anti-Lecompton men. The result in his part of the State, in his county, and his congressional district, was an inmeased Democratic vote, even over 1556; yet the ancalled for, unprovoked, ill-timed, unfounded and talse charge had been made upon him by this friend of Mr. Douglas. But he would repeat, he was glad it was made; it afforded him an opportunity, not only to repel it as to houself, but as to tae friends of the administration all over the State. Where in all Indians did the friends of Where, in all ludiana, dul the friends of lloveys, and your Davis' When beaten in fair tined $5. quired in $200 for 6 months.

lloveys, and your Davis' When beaten in fair and regular convention, did they desert and rally on wood-piles, and norm are a third man, as they did against our gallent friend, Judge llughes?—These bolting Douglas men voted for Carra that district, for flovey against Niblack in the tirst, and Porter in the sixth. This is the cause of our defeat, for I repeat again, administration men everywhere voted the ticket, the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket, and no man can or will denvir. These defections in these various localities have given you a Reand no man can or will denvit. These defections in these various localities have given you a Republican Legislature, and a Republican Representation in Congress; yet it is charged upon administration men, and he (Mr. Robiuson was singled ont, as the cause of it; though the result where Mr. Robinson has most influence, if anywhere, and where he made speeches, showed precisely the reverse. In view of this indisputable fact, he asked if the friends of Mr. Douglas, of he asked if the friends of Mr. Douglas. Vallace, by no ingenuity, sophistry, assertion of attack, could escape or evade it. Administration nen mischief-makers! This is a pretty charge oming from such a source. On the 8th of Janury last, the Democratic party of the State me iome, and went to work to elect their ticket low did Douglas men act? men spmpathizing with the gentleman who thus assailed him.

They had another convention, or State meeting, within less than fifty days afterwards. He did not know whether the gentleman was with them, for he knew very little about him, but they were Douglas men. They again met at the capitol-meditated seriously, we are told, a new ticket.—They did lay down a new platform, and commenced catechising our candidates about it. Was he, (Mr. Robinson, or those associated with him, ever guilty of such sedition and disorganization? Never. This was unparalleled in the history of the Democratic nerty of Indiana. Pretty talk. and common sense, what is asked of administra-tion meu? What must or can they do to concili-ate and harmonize these Douglas champions?— We vote for men whenever they are pomiuated We have said all along in the canvass, in the lan-

We have said all along in the canvass, in the language of their leader, Douglas himsef, that it was a dead issue, and no man would revive it, but for mischierous purposes. While we have done this, they holt regular nominees, defeat them, and then when the election is over they have the hrazen effontery to lay it on us. Mr. Rohinson repeated he was glad this assault, unprovoked as it was, had heen made upon him; it had given him this opportunity to lay these facts before the andience. The gentleman Mr. Wallace, was not the pence. The gentleman, Mr. Wallace, was not the nan to appropriately assail him; he carried the Democratic flag in the dark and stormy hard-cier contest of 1840, when the gentleman was a here youth; he had adhered ever since, through good and evil report, hore it aloft, when the gen-tleman was with the flag of theenemy. Fears had heen repeatedly expressed, Mr. Robinson had learned, that his friend flughes and himself would make intemperate speeches this even-ing; would injure the party; they were too ultra and violent. Who had made the first ex-hibition of had temper this evening? The gentleman had, in the hearing of the audience and hefore Mr. Rohinson had opened his mouth, made adjust personal charge upon him, that he, made a direct personal charge upon him. made a direct personal charge upon him, that he, more than any one else, was the cause of the defeat of the party. He trusted he had sufficiently repelled it; and while doing so had illustrated the cylls of Douglasism in Indiana in the person of Mr. Wallace as happily as the temperance lecturer had the evils of intemperance. The temperance lecturer did it by carrying around with him and exhibiting a drankard. Mr. Robinson illustrated Douglasism by exhibiting Mr. Wallace himself. But he would not pursue this personal controversy further: it was not to his taste, he controversy further; it was not to his taste; he left it for bolting Democrats. Violent personal ahnse is the staple of their speeches.

Mr. Rohinson would then, he said, illustrate the mischievous tendencies of the pretended principles of the so-called Douglas wing of the so party, by a reference to points of differ-ence hetween them and the Democratic party. lle proposed to show that in each, and of all them, they were agitating about impracticable abstractions; about matters that either never could come before Congress at all, or were far in the distance.

First—1s this new idea broached by Mr. Doug-First—Is this new idea hroached by Mr. Doug-las about the power of the territorial legislature over the question of slavery? What have we to do with that question? It is a judicial, not a legislative, question. He, (Mr. Robinson,) believ-ed the Supreme Conrt had already and finally de-cided it, but whether it had or not, Congress, all pretending to be Democrats agree, cannot decide, cannot touch it. It is beyond our reach—outside of our jurisdiction. I sannot be brought into pol-itics, but for mischievous purposes, let a man'a populous be as it may opinion be as it may

ities, but for mischievous purposes, let's man a opinion be as it may

Second—These gentlemen differ from the main body of the Democrats, about it heing essential in order to validity to submit constitutions to a direct vote of the people (Mr. Douglas does not go this far.) hefore a State ought to be admitted into the Union. This grows out of the Kansas tronhle. The probabilities are that in ten centuries, if our Government should last so long, another case like Kansas will never arise. It never did before, it likely never will again. Constitutions will either be shhmitted, or they will so undoubtedly reflect the will of the people as to give rise to no dispute. Then is it wise, is it prudent, is it consistent with common sense, that the Democracy should make a sine qua non, or even talk about such an improbable case of disturbance? Would anyhody but mischief-makers do it?

Mr. Robinson as dilute before he closed he desired to subscribe to every letter and syllable of the very able, terse and lucid enunciation and exposition of Democratic principles embodied in the speech of his triend, Judge Hughes. It was the doctrine of the lent craite party; and no man had much political sagacity, or noted with profit passing events, who did not know the principles therein contained would be approved at Charleston in 1860. The Dred Scott decision would, in terms, be approved; and gentlemen who intended terms, be approved; and gentlemen who intended to remain in the Democratic party, must make np their minds to approve it also, or at least acquiesce

Mr. Robinson said, in conclusion, that he had seen stormy times before in the history of the Democratic party; he had been abused before so long and so often, by all the parties that had arisen and fallen, which had opposed the Democratic party. purty, that he was not very sensitive; indeed he rather liked being selected, as he was, for the con-centration of the calumination and wrath of men who had turned, or were turning their hacks upon the Democratic party; he regarded it as a com-pliment. Washington, Dec. 6.—The only portion of the President's message which seems to give general satisfaction, is that which relates to the tariff.—

But the general feeling is that even for that por-tion the President deserves little credit, as some modification of the tariff is absolutely necessary to save the Administration from hankrupter. Mr. Dewart's protection motion of the Honse seems to be merely a whimsical attempt to fore-stall the President. The vote, however, was somewhat significant; in that it shows a protection majority in the ilouse. There is, undonbtedly, a majority ready to admit the necessity of a general augmentation of the tariff, but it is doubtful whether a majority can be got to agree on any particular plan. All that Democrats wish is to help the Administration out of its pecuniary additionally and to regain Pennsylvania.

A Good Speech.

We publish, this morning, the substance of the speech made by Hen. John L. Robinson, (as reported for the Seutinel,) at the Damocratic meeting held on the 14th ult., at the capita' of Indiana. He repels the charge that the administration Hemocrats had caused the defeat of the party at the North, and tixes the guilt of the charge where it belongs. The alministration Democrals voted the full taket in his region, while the Donglas men bolted. This is true of more neighbor hoods than that of Mr. Robinson. The Douglas Democrats were to aid in the many places, at the 1ste elections, caucusing, canvassing, and voting with the position, consisting of Abolitiouists, Black Repullicals, Freesilers, Free Niggers. and Know Normings.

There is no d sansing the fact, that the defeat et the Democracy at the North was caused by the co-operation of the Douglas min with the opposition The fact is just as Mr. Robinson states i The effect of the coalition lixes a heavy respons bility on the Danglas belters. It will require much repentance to make good the harm they have done. The ff ne can never be cleared u by further union and co-operation with the enrules of the Heneracy and of the Union. Houghes must go back to the point from which he wandered on ite Kansas question, and his follow ris i'u t go with him, before their Democracy will be free I hat? Mr. Robinson's speech explains the who's marrier, and as a rollex of the true lea, e acv of Indiana, we commend it to

That Douglas Resolution.

The eli'r of the Louisville Journal is trouble! because we wir in a Domocratic meeting last Stard a ui_at, which he save adopted a Douglas resolution. The res 'utions convering the Admiui-tration and Jadge Douglas, as given to the presby the serretary, were as follows

1. That the Democracy of the Seventh and Eighth Wards of the city of Louisville reaffirm the principles of the Unclument platform, and proclaim an abiding faith in the patriotism, integritr, and ability of the administration of President

The sucpression of pleasure at the defeat of the worse, if, adeed, there be any better or worse between them in the opinion of Southern Democrats.

The Jeurnal's Idea of a Freesciler.

is that we are pleased with the nomination of the Hon. John Leicher, of Virginia, as a candidate for the Governorship of that State. The reason assigned by the Journal, is that Letcher was once tinged with such freesof notions as would induce Senator Davis, of Miss, to act his State at war

Now, it is strange that the editor of the Journal should talk about the freesoilism of John Letcher, of Va. The antagonistic views of Mr. Letcher and the editor of the Journal, upon the single question of annexing the State of Texas to the Union, ought to teach the editor never to publish anything about Letcher being a freesoiler. While the editor of the Journal was in his native Connecticut, he wrote concering the annexation of felt that this much, at least, was due to him for his Texas as follows

The purchase of Texas must be opposed. Every nan who does not wish to see the power of the North-rn and Western States depart forever, every man who does not wish to ess a dozen new slave States added to the Union, and to hear the cross of additional millions of wretched negroes going up to meet the Lord at the eir, and imprecate veny cance upon our land, will oppose the purchase of Texas with a deep and irrevistable determination.

Mr. Letcher though: differently of the annexation of this slave territory to the Union. Kentucky Stata Agricultural Society.

The fourth annual meeting of this association under the amended charter, took place at Frankfort, on Wednesday, the 6th inst. Owing to its courrence a month earlier than usual, and to the ver the State generally, the attendance was not large as on some previous occasions. Men of he right sort were present, however, and the proeedings of the meeting were interesting, harmoious, and encouraging to the friends of the great productive interest of Kentucky, upon which the resent and prospective prosperity of the State in great a degree depends. The report of the corresponding secretary show-

d clearly that the society is doing a good work. n the three years of its existence, it has held airs in each of the three agricultural divisions of State-first in Bourbon county, next in Henicrson county, and the past antunn, as the readers of the Courier well remember, in Jefferson, ou the admirable grounds of the Southwesteru Association. On these three occasions, it is fair to say that not much short of one hundred thousand people were brought together, from different parts of Kentucky, from the southwest, and the orthwest, and from many of the Eastern States Before our own people were laid pratical evidences of the wonderful improvements made in other sectious of the Union in agricultural machinery farm implements, and all appliances to the art of visitors were shown samples of the products of Kentucky soil, evidences of the thrift, industry, and skill of our rural housewifery, and thousands of those superior horses, cattle, mules, and other lomestic animals, which have long done so much. and every year continue to do so much, toward sustaining and spreading the reputation of Kentucky as an agricultural State, and fucreasing the wealth, prosperity, and happiness of our people. At the three fairs of the State Society to which we have refered, a most gratifying spirit of emulation has been exhibited ou the part of our rural opulation - bearing ample evidence to the fact hat the $15,000 which has been distributed in the orm of premiums were wisely appropriated.

The treasurer's report showed that the finances the first. This has been particularly the case during the past year. The total receipts for 1858, from all sources, foot up $19,651 45; total expenditures, for all purposes, $7,625 84; leaving a cash halance, in the treasury, at the close of the year. of $3,025 64; to which must be added, for silver plate on hand, $500; so that the society commences the new year with ready means, amounting to $3,525, to which will be added $5,000 on the 1st of annary, 1859. Eight thousand and five hundred lollars is a handsome sum with which to comsence the business of getting up the Fourth An ual Fair!

When it is considered how different a state of hings this presents, from what is so often exhibted by similar public bodies, it fully vindicates the wisdom of the members of the society present at the annual meeting, in unanimously re-electing the officers of 1858, to serve again in 1859 -a compli nent which they most assuredly deserved. The only change in the directory occurs in one of the members for the First District, Gen. Lucius Desha, of Harrison county, declining a re-election, and Mr. William Warfield, of Payette, being chosen in his place. For the convenience of reference, however, we publish the list:

OFFICERS FOR THE YEAR 1859. President-Brutus J. Clay, of Bourbon. Vic Presidents-R. Atchison Alexander, First istrict; J. A. Tomlinson, Second District; Rob

ri Browder, Third District. Directors-L. J. Bradford, First District; Harri-District; Gibson Mallory, Second District; Steven 7. Drane, Second District; William A. Cooke, Second District; George M. Priest, Third District. James S. Jackson, Third District; John M. Sharp, Third District.

Treasurer-James W. Tate, of Frankliu. Corresponding Secretory-W. D. Gallagher, of Idhau.

Recording Secretary-Win. M. Wynn, of Clarke. There is now every reason to regard the State gricultural Society as one of the permauent initutions of Kentucky.

We rejoice at this result, for we believe it may and will be made an instrumentality of much good. Whatever tends to foster our agricultural inter est encourages the foundation of our wealth, pros perity, and happiness, and the Courier is for it. We hall do all we can to help along the association in the good work it has began and progressed in hus far so satisfactorily

[Correspondence of the Louisville Courier.] State Senators-John P. Smith.

Edit irs Louisville Courier :- You have doubt s had many communications as to who should eceive nominations at the hands of the upproachng Hemocratic convention.

Allow me to make a suggetion in another pol ical channel, touching the composition of the next Senate of Kentucky. In that branch of the egislature, the Democracy have not yet had con rol: and as it is conceded by all that we mus ave a majority next session, in that body, it is important that such men should be selected us rill aid in giving a sound and healthy tone to ablic scutiment, and throw their weight and inence in favor of wise and wholesome legislation, ud thus promote the public good, and at the anie time preserve the ascendency of Democracy n the State.

The Senatorial term of John P. Smith has expired, he having been elected to fill the unexpired erm of Chas. Allen, Esq.
Now, Messrs. Editors, allow me to say, without resuming to dictate to the Democracy of that dis-rict—for by discussion, and a free interchange opinions, political truth is seen-I have served any years in the Legislature of Keutucky, and judgment, a more valuable legislator, no ealy to his people, but to the entire State, than ohn P. Smith, I have never seen take a seat in either branch of that body. Always at his post, merring scrupulously the interest of his people, checking extravagance in every shape, and bold-ly advocating the great principles of economy in the administration of the government, and the great principles of equality of political rights, as embodied in the Democratic creed. In short, Jno. P. Smith was emphatically the Roman of the last Scenate, to whom all looked for sound independ enate, to whom all looked for sound judg Schale, to whom an rooted for sound judgment and wise counsel. Reserved, courteous and affa-ble in his intercourse with his fellow-members, yet fearless and bold in the advocacy of right, and without at all disparaging the pretentions of any Democrat, I hope I may be excused for suggesting that the people of his district could not select a more faithful and reliable Senator to serve them the part four years. them the next four years. I don't know that Col. Smith desires to return to the Scuate, but I have eminent public services during the last imp Auditor-J. R. Barrack. BURESVILLE, KY., Dec. 3, 1858 Editors Louisville Courier: It is the duty of very conservative Democrat in the State to act rudently and wisely on the 8th of next January, and nominate such men to fill the various offices in the State as will reflect credit on the parly, and prosperity to the country. In selecting candilates, it should and no doubt will be the object of very delegate to select men of sagacity and proer qualifications. I take pleasure in stating to e numerous read ers of your paper that this Cumberland) county is unanimously in fayor of lames R. Barrack, Esq., of Glasgow, Ky., for Auitor of Public Accounts. Clinton, Wayne, and arrack should receive the nomination. We have had a slight personal acquaintance ith Mr. Barrack, and have known him for some ime from reputatiou. Be it said in honor to him hat he has always beeu an unyielding, consistent, onservative Democrat. He has never compro-nised or arcrificed the interest of his party. To der him the nomination is but a just reward

It is admitted by all who know him that he is in every respect well qualified to fulfill the duties of the office properly. CUMBERLAND.

THE GUBERNATORIAL NOMINATION.—The primary cetings held in the different counties of the inte, and expressive of the direct and immediate will or opinion of the sovereigns themselves, have nearly all sent in their returns, and the in-decations are, that the sentiment of the larger portion of the State, is pretty equally divided between the Hon. Beriah Magothin, and the Hon. A. G. Talbott.—Elizabethtown Democrat.

Hoop Skirts on a large scale. Their grand double extension, patent adjustable bustle skirt is pronounced by all who have worn them to he supefact that the change of time had not become known rior in all respects to any ever brought before the public. They are made on an entirely new principle, from the best tempered watch spring steel, are very light and graceful, and the double adjustable bustle effectually prevents the clothes from hreaking down the skirt, or throwing it forward. The hoops are so elastic and pliable that no change of position will effect the shape of the skirt. They are also manufacturing a beautiful lace or not skirt, with eleven steel spring hoops that are very popular. nº dlm&w4 46

NUNNS & CLARK'S Improved New Scale Pianos are so well and favorably known in this market, and throughout the whole country, to be surrance in touch, tone, and durability, and they speak so well for themselves, that they need no word of commendation from any open are new Pianos in this market, but they are well known in many sections of the country as an A No. I instrument. Competent judges who have tried them pronounce them fully equal, if not superior, to the Steinway & Son's Pianos. They are a beautiful, highly finished instrument, and we can sell them at three-fourths the price of a Chickering Piano, as we do not have to pay anything for their name or reputation. We still keep a full supply of the New and Improved Scale of Chickering & Son's Graud, Parlor Grand, and Square Planos, and as we are Cash Dealers in them, we can sell them nusually low for cash. We have also several other makes of Pianos, all of which we warrant to give perfects satisfaction. N. B. All kinds of Oil and Fluid Lamps alte HANSEN'S PIANOS.

This LAMP burns with a pure white brilliant light equal to gas, and is much cheaper than gas. The Luar Light took the first premium at the last Mechanics' Fair in Louisville. One dollar's worth of Lunar oil gives the light of $3 16 of Lard Oil, $4 86 of Whate Oil, $9 45 of Burning Fluid, $14 26 of Candies. Hair a pint burns 15 beurs, costing about 5% cents, giving a light equal to 5 or 6 star candies. Lunar Oil is not explosive, has no disarrecable smell, and is not liable to smoke. Lamps suitable for all purposes.

THE RIVER commenced rising yesterday, with scant s.x feet "pass water" on the falls last evening, and seven fe t nin or tea inches water in the canal by the mail. This makes the actual depth of water in the canal a little less than nine feet.— During the previous 24 hours the river had risen four inclies. The weather was very cold in the morning, and good heavy ice was made, but in the evening it had turned warmer and cloudy, indicating more rain or snow.

The winter, according to the many signs, is likely to prove a mild one. The muskrats have built their houses thin and high in the water, and the three first days of winter, December, were mild and rather pleasant, indicating that the three winter months will be equally pleasant, with but high ice.

The dispatches from Pittsburgh vesterday, report another rise, with twelve feet water in the hannel at noon.
The river at Chicinnati at noon yesterday, had risen upwards of three feet, and we still have hopesof "up stream" water on the falls. The Camber and, at Nashville, Tuesday, had risen about two feet, with three feet on the shoals. A heavy rise, however, was reported at Hartsville, and at Carthage the river was rising rapidly from the eff ets of the bravy rains in that vicinity.—

The Runyan, Rick Chay, Charter, Shingless, Ella, Sahie West, James Johnson and Minnetonka were

Washington, December 9th, 1958.—House.—
Mr. Chapman referred to the fact that two nicinorials had been sent to the House, asking the impeachment of Judge Watrous, of Texas, and proceeded to review the lacts and testimony in the case, involving the charges that Watrous secretly engaged in land speculations, showing a degree of official misconduct which admits of no excuse, and a gross exercise of his judicial powers. Not only did he arrange to sit in cases covering his own private interests, but to remove others to New Orleans, to he placed beyond the reach of Texas jurors and litigants. Mr. Chapman believed contidence in Watrons's administration had been shaken to the foundation, duty of the House simply to ascertain whether there is probable cause for trial, not to inquire whether Watrus was innocent or guilty; that Feather Beds and Malresses, and one second-was for the Senate to determine. Mr. Tappan was opposed to the impeachment of Watrous. He asked the House to examine the evidence, and not to be diverted from a proper line of proceeding by outside pressure. On this evidence alone he wanted them to say whether Vatrous was innocent or guilty. The resolutions of the Legislature of Texas, in condemnation of his conduct, grew out of a decision touching the statute of limitation, and affecting the pockets of the people of that State, which decision was sus-tained by the Supreme Court of the United States. He said there was no evidence to show that Watrous contemplated setting as a judge in his own cause, and that, by the purchase of land, he lost none of the rights as a citizen of Texas. Watrous has done nothing to prevent his coming from this orderl without even the smell of lire on his garments. Instead of concenhing evidence, he showed that Watrous promptly disclosed that he had an interest in certain cases in connection with which nterest in certain cases, in connection with which improper charges have been brought against him.

Tappan entered into a general defence of Watrous, relying upon the printed evidence for this
